China-Biotics, Inc. Appoints New Chief Financial Officer

Shanghai, China – March 6, 2009 – China-Biotics, Inc. (NASDAQ: CHBT) (“China-Biotics”, “the Company”), a leading Chinese firm specializing in the manufacture, research, development, marketing and distribution of probiotics products, today announced Lewis Fan will succeed Raymond Li as Chief Financial Officer, effective March 6, 2009. Mr. Li will continue to serve as Vice President of Finance to the Company.

Reporting to Mr. Jinan Song, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Fan will be responsible for all aspects of China-Biotics’ finance functions, including accounting, financial planning, tax, treasury and audit. Prior to joining China-Biotics, Mr. Fan was Vice President and Senior Equity Analyst for Brean Murray, Carret & Co., where he covered the Chinese healthcare industry. He previously served as an equity analyst at UBS and as an emerging markets strategist at Deutsche Bank.

“I want to thank Raymond for his dedicated contributions as our Chief Financial Officer. He steered this company through its first public financing and has been chiefly responsible for our transition last year to the Nasdaq Global Market. We look forward to his continuing input and experience,” said Mr. Song. “We are also excited to welcome Lewis as our new CFO. His combined technical knowledge in both finance and science will be an ideal fit as we move into the next phase of our life as a public company.”

Prior to his Wall Street career, Mr. Fan served as a research scientist focusing on natural product drug discovery at Schering-Plough. He holds a Master of Business Administration degree in finance from New York University, a Master of Science degree in medicinal chemistry from the University of Michigan and a Bachelor of Arts degree with honors in biology and chemistry from Luther College.
